CERTIFICATE OF TEACHER REGISTRATION

Information pursuant to the Teachers Registration and Standards Act 2004 (the Act)

24—Conditions of registration

- (1) The Teachers Registration Board may impose conditions of registration which may include (but are not limited to) the following:
 - (a) conditions requiring the person to complete a course or acquire experience as a teacher;
 - (b) conditions requiring the supervision of the person;
 - (c) conditions restricting the subjects that the person may teach;
 - (d) conditions restricting the education that the person may provide;
 - (e) conditions limiting the period for which the registration remains in force;
 - (f) conditions requiring the provision of further evidence as to competence.
- (2) Without limiting the effect of subsection (1), the Teachers Registration Board must—
 - (a) make it a condition of every registration that—
 - (i) if the person is charged with or convicted of an offence of a kind specified in the condition (which may include offences under the law of South Australia or elsewhere), the person must, within 14 days, give written notice of the charge or conviction to the Board containing the details specified in the condition; and
 - (ii) if the person is dismissed from employment as a practising teacher in response to allegations of unprofessional conduct, or resigns from employment as a practising teacher following allegations of unprofessional conduct, the person must, within 14 days, give written notice of the person's dismissal or resignation to the Board containing the details specified in the condition; and
 - (iii) if the person is dismissed from any employment in response to allegations of improper conduct relating to a child, or resigns from employment following allegations of improper conduct relating to a child, the person must, within 14 days, give written notice of the person's dismissal or resignation to the Board containing the details specified in the condition; and
 - (b) make it a condition of every provisional registration that the person acquire the experience or meet the requirements (as the case may be) necessary for the person to be eligible for registration under section 21(1).
- (3) The Teachers Registration Board may, on application or by written notice, vary or revoke a condition, or impose a condition, of a person's registration as a teacher.

For the purposes of Section 24 (2)(a)(i) of the Act a 'specified offence' includes:

- any offence for which a term of imprisonment is a penalty (whether or not a penalty of imprisonment was imposed) OR
- any offence involving illicit drugs, violence, sexual or indecent behaviour, dishonesty or cruelty to animals

20—Requirement to be registered

- (1) A person must not—
 - (a) undertake employment as a teacher, principal or director at a school or prescribed service; or
 - (b) for a fee or other consideration, personally provide primary or secondary education, or offer to do so; or
 - (c) claim or pretend to be a registered teacher, unless the person is a registered teacher.

Maximum penalty: $5 000.

27—Requirement for provision of information

- (1) The Teachers Registration Board or the Registrar may, at any time, require a registered teacher or the employer or a former employer of a registered teacher to provide information relating to the teacher or the teacher's employment.
- (2) A person who fails to comply with a requirement under this section is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: $5 000.
Expiation fee: $315.

29—Certificates of registration

- (1) The Registrar must, on the registration of a person as a teacher, issue to the person a certificate of registration in a form approved by the Teachers Registration Board that includes the following information:
 - (a) the person's full name and registration number; and
 - (b) the conditions (if any) of the registration; and
 - (c) the expiry date of the registration; and
 - (d) any other information the Board thinks fit.
- (2) A registered teacher must, within 28 days after —
 - (a) a condition of the person's registration has been varied or revoked; or
 - (b) any other change in the information recorded in the certificate of registration has occurred; or
 - (c) the registration has been suspended or cancelled,return the certificate of registration to the Registrar.
